

THE INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE FEDERATION

FIABCI in Italy

FIABCI Italia (www.fiabci.it) is the Italian section of the Federation, present throughout the national territory, and involves all the professional operators of the industry: agent, consultants, builders, insurers, banks, condominium managers, lawyers, notaries, assessors and experts, industry publishers and the like.

FIABCI ITALY has a new newly-appointed President, Giancarlo Bracco, a partner as well as the historical founder of Immobiliarda Srl, a Real Estate agency founded in 1973 at Santa Teresa di Gallura which operates in the tourism industry by providing wide-ranging services for the promotion and development of the tourist/residential industry in Sardinia. In 2006 he also founded IMS Holding Spa, which includes 10 companies related to Giancarlo Bracco, the current President.

Giancarlo Bracco has been a member of FIABCI since 1974.

The appointment of Giancarlo Bracco is complementary to that of Enrico Campagnoli, FIABCI's World President: the combination of the two appointments also marks a new era for FIABCI ITALY, which has now considerable expansion goals.

Enrico Campagnoli (born in 1942) has been the founder, manager and shareholder of numerous companies in the Real Estate industry that are successfully operating in Italy, the Usa and Switzerland. He was the CEO of the Real Estate Market Advisory Group (REM) of the United Nations – in the Economic Commission for Europe.
